JANUARY 2012

Hello everyone, Happy New Year, The Frozen Finger Fun Fly on January First was a success. If two or more make it, it's a success. I think there were about six that flew. The wind was about 15 mph straight down the field with rain bands about every 15 minutes, but no snow. We were done in an hour and got out. At the meeting we need to talk about events for this year and the swap meet in March. If we can come up with a tentative schedule we can work out the details later. See you at the meeting.
